What is it?

Emerging as a result of a collective started with the support of several publishers and partners, ORCID is a researcher identifying platform that allows to gather all research outputs in a single account using a unique digital identity.

ORCID User Manual

Why is it necessary?

It increases the possibility for researchers to be found, and their work to be accessed.

It provides a secure network gateway enabling colleagues working in common fields to find each other's work quickly and define another researcher as a potential collaborator.

Visibility settings

Your ORCID iD connects with your ORCID record that can contain links to your research activities, affiliations, awards, other versions of your name, and more. You control this content and who can see it. More information on visibility settings.

By default, who should be able to see information added to your ORCID Record?

ORCID User Manual

The screenshot shows the ORCID website interface. At the top, there is the ORCID logo with the tagline "Connecting Research and Researchers". To the right, there is a language dropdown menu set to "English" and a search bar with a "Registry" dropdown and a search icon. Below this is a navigation bar with links for "FOR RESEARCHERS", "FOR ORGANIZATIONS", "ABOUT", and "HELP". A yellow banner at the top of the profile page reads "Thank you for verifying your email s.akgun@iku.edu.tr". The profile page shows a blue profile picture placeholder, an "ORCID ID" section with the URL "https://orcid.org/0000-0002-0578-2967" and a "View public version" link, and several utility links: "Display your ID on other sites", "Public record print view", "Get a QR Code for your ID", "Also known as", "Country", "Keywords", "Websites", and "Other IDs". The main content area is titled "Biography" and contains several expandable sections: "Employment (0)", "Education and qualifications (0)", "Invited positions and distinctions (0)", "Membership and service (0)", "Funding (0)", and "Works (0 of 0)". Each section has a "You haven't added information to this section yet; add an [category] now" message and buttons for "+ Add [category]", "+ Add [category]", and "Sort".

You will be redirected to the homepage once your registration is completed. Your ORCID is ready now. You can update your other IDs (e.g. Web of Science ResearcherID, Scopus ID), country information, keywords or websites on this page.
